6. Legislative Update (Tina Recalde)

Tina Recalde shared that Chancellor Carroll is working on legislation to ensure the baccalaureate programs are coordinated and organized; existing programs are permanent and removed from pilot status; current requirements are maintained including no duplication, evidence of workforce education needs, ACCJC/WASC and specialized accreditations are maintained as well as the same student fee structure and consultation review process. The new legislation will be launched in February after the LAO report is released.

Tina also mentioned she emailed the presentations from the October meeting.

7. Web Site (Mike Slavich)

Mike continued the discussion regarding a website for the BDP programs. He said Rio Hondo is willing to develop it and maintain it the first year.

Roll Call Vote: Support website

8. Other

Reminder: the CCCAOE spring conference is on March 10, 2020 in Sacramento. Advocacy training will be available in the morning, In the afternoon there will be an opportunity for additional training and conversations with legislators. Colleges were encouraged to bring students—legislators enjoy hearing from students.

Frank asked if they should bring current students or alumni. Tina said either, it’s important all of their voices are heard. She also said Mesa College pays for students to attend.

There were mixed responses if we should schedule an in-person BDP meeting during CCCAOE.

Russell shared that KBIE—PBS will be featuring the Feather River College bachelor’s degree in Equine and Ranch Management during an upcoming episode of the Emmy-nominated “Inside California Education series.” The FRC program will air tonight, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m.
